

Independent Resource Contractors “Home Helpers” (up to Full-Time hours available for self-employed contractors)

Family Service Kent is seeking motivated House Cleaners, Personal Support Workers and Health Care Aids from across Chatham-Kent to join our roster of Independent Resource Contractors ("Home Helpers"). The Home Help broker service, operated under the CHAP umbrella, facilitates service matches between self-employed "Helpers" and clients seeking to employ affordable in-home assistance.

As a self-employed Home Helper, you will be responsible for working independently in homes across Chatham-Kent with clients we match you to. Alongside meeting domestic and/or personal care needs, you will be responsible for ensuring clients are safe, secure, comfortable, and happy in their home. Jobs may entail preparing a client's favourite, nutritious meal, carrying out household tasks around the home, providing personal cares, and/or providing companionship supports. Our clients have varying degrees of dependency and health needs, so you will need to have at least 6 months' experience and/or relevant training.

What we offer:

- Pay rates range per job from $20 to $25 per hour.
- Flexible working patterns and the choice of when you work.
- Various assignment lengths offering flexible options to maintain a healthy work-life balance.
- Brokerage and mediation support from our Home Help Service Coordinator.

If you meet the following criteria, we would love to hear from you

- 6+ months experience with general household cleaning/tasks and/or personal care services to clients.
- Valid driver's license, transportation and clear Vulnerable Persons Check.
- Liability insurance coverage is recommended.
- Well-spoken, and fluent in written and spoken English; other languages an asset.
- Organized, with effective communication and reporting skills (oral & written).
- Resourcefulness, flexibility, and the ability to take initiative
- Happy to provide care for people, including those with dementia, their homes.
- Strong ability to work independently and cope with demanding daily routines.
- Good cooking skills and have experience running and maintaining a home.
- Alignment with Family Service Kent's mission, vision, and values to provide services to individuals, families, and communities.

Interested applicants are invited to submit their resume to Family Service Kent and we will complete a screening interview with you. Please send resumes, attention: Home Help, via email to homehelp@familyservicekent.com. Resumes can also be dropped off in person at the agency: 50 Adelaide Street South, Chatham.
